every woman is a queen if she be a perfect woman. The crown of womanhood is mother-hood. There is no higher thing than this. There is no better thing that any woman can do of bright and happy children. That the best and highest thing that anybody can do in this world It cannot be acnievisn't healthy, who suffers from any of the weaknesses or isorders peculiar to her sex. A false idea of modesty which prevents the acquisition of know-ledge, and the carelessness which preledge, and the carelessness which prevents an application of knowledge are the most prolific causes of this kind of sickness. Thirty years ago, knowledge of the prevalence of such disorders induced Dr. R. V. Pierce, than as now, chief consulting physician of the Invalid's Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. V. to devote a great amount of time N. Y., to devote a great amount of time and study to the preparation of a remedy that would invigorate and strengthen the womanly organism—that would cure perfectly and positively all forms of female weakness—that would take the male weakness — that would take the danger away from childbirth, and greatly lessen the pains of labor. This remedy is called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. That it accomplished the object for which it was intended is proven by its remarkable and continued success for 30 years. Women will gain much knowledge by reading Dr. Pierce's great thousand page "Common Sense Medical Adviser." A "Common Sense Medical Adviser." SENATOR DANIEL ON BRYAN, Le his views of the result of Tuesday's

"There is," says the Senator, "no reason for true democrats to be cast down. The party was overthrown two years ago by an unprecedented majority, and started this campaign handicapped by an admiristration which had gone in part-nership with its enemies. Notwith-standing this, it has made decided gains in Congress, and considering that the Bryanites' great leader fought 'against wind and tide' the result is the most marvelous achievement of American politics. The wisdom of the democrats in the nomination of Bryan has been vindicated. He has compelled the respect of his loes, endeared the hearts of his friends, and upheld our cause with tireless energy, noble eloquence, and unanswerable logic. He is to-day the foremost citizen of America. 'First in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen.'

"The American people have shown that they possess that self-control which is the highest form of self-assertion. Never was so great a struggle, involv ing such great interests, attended with such few incidents of ill-behavior or violence, and in the well-tempered character of our people we behold the best guarantee of the perpetuity of self-government.

"The distressing and mournful feature of the campaign was the shamelessness with which money and coercon were employed without rebuke or dissent from those who profess to teach political morality. Public sentiment has been shocked by their brazen malpractices, but this republic is too young, too fresh, and too manly to indorse deberately the debauchery of the suftrage. The combined monopolies of the country were opposed to us, and there was not a hireling tongue or pen or vote that was not enlisted against Bryan. "Every autocrat and every plutocrat in Europe is to day rejoicing over Mc-Kinley's victory, and well they may be, for it was a European and not an American victory. McKinleyism will-disappoint its votaries. It cannot manufacture prosperity out of higher taxes and less money, and its promise to promote international bimetallism is will prove dead sea truit, and when their fallacy is exposed democracy will prove the provention of th

"The democracy of Virginia is beyond praise. It stood the shock of battle unawed by menace and uncorrupted by vanity. We have no reason

DR. McGUIRE WHILE IN EUROPE Dr. Hunter McGuire, of Richmond, who was surgeon-in-chief of General

Stonewall Jackson's corps, has recently returned from Europe, where he spent a portion of the summer. In an interview in the Richmond Times Dr. Mc-Guire is quoted as saying :

"I was thrown a good deal with a number of officials of the British army while I was in Eugland and was very courteously and kindly received. saw a portion of the maneuvers going on at Aldershot by invitation of M jor General Lord Methuen; saw the sham battle at or near Brookwood; had an invitation from Lord Wolseley, commander-in-chief of the army, to see the review at Farnsborough, but was prevented by a terrific downpour of rain from meeting him. In his letter of inv totion he says: 'I would like to have a talk with you about the greatest man by far whom I ever knew, General

The estimate of Lee and Jackson Senator John W. Daniel, who was the hy English officers was very gratifying. temporary chairman of the Chicago At a little party of E glish officers convention, yesterday telegraphed to the Richmond State from Lynchburg his views of the result of Tuesday's that 'America had produced but three great generals-first was Washington, he second Lee and the third Jackson.

"I was surprised that he regarded Washington as an exceedingly able strategist with a knowledge of tactics, for which, in my ignorance I had never given him any credit. One of these officers, a teacher in the -taff College at Camberly, a gentleman who teaches strategy and tactics to students who have been officers in the army for some years, said, that he 'spent four or five months of his lectures every year upon the campaign of Stonewall Jackson in the Valley in 1862; that he had studied the campaign of Jackson and Lee around Richmond, Jackson's tour around Pope, his environment of Harper's Ferry, his flank movement against Hooker, and he had never found him to blunder.' One of them said with a great deal of enthusiaem, 'The 1st of March, 1862, found Lee in front of Mc-Clellan, with 71,000 men, Jackson in the valley with from 14,000 to 16,000 men; McClellan had 105,000, McDowell at Fredericksburg had 40,000, Banks, Fre-mont, Shields and Milroy in the Valley had 60,000. In two months the 60,000 in front of Jackson had been whipped in detail and were gathered around Washington to protect the capital. The 40,000 under McDowell had not advanced a step, and the 105,000 under McClellan were at Harrison's Landing, under the protection of gunboats.' That he did not believe there had ever been on earth an army of the same force and power or commanded by men of greater genius and skill than Lee and Jack-

Condensed Testimony. Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufac urerer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a Cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Merrill, Baldwinsville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures.
